Delegate Report

- 1) At the convention in jan. there is no hospitality meeting room.
- 2) 3 clubs were supposed to be voted in, but only 1 showed up.
- 3) Govonor Brown is actually our only ally in the legislature at this time. He is not allowing the OHV funds to be diverted to other uses.
- 4) The "Little sluce" issues were decided in 2010. This is not new.
- 5) There are a lot of new water bars made of granite rock to help slow erosion.
- 6) Next meeting will be voting for a new vice president for Cal 4 Wheel.
- 7) Seirra treck made about $28,000.
- 8) Winter fun fest needs a raffle host.
- 9) The firefires were told to save the pot crops in the Mendicino fires this last summer.
- 10) Oct. 14 is a free day at Prarie City OHV.
- 11) A new bill has been passed that no one under 16 can drive unless an adult is in the vehicle, helmets must be worn, and child laws have been implemented.

Old Business

Run-master Report

- 1) Wentworth Springs run at the Rubicon. We had to pick another campsite 'cause the preferred spot was taken.
- 2) It was a pretty big group 18 people total.
- 3) Kelly's face hurt 'cause of smiling so much.
- 4) Left camp at 10:30 back at 5:30 on fri.
- 5) Donnie/dave showed up Friday night.
- 6) Pot lucks were huge success.
- 7) Made it to soup bowl around 3:30 on Saturday and turned around.
- 8) Pete almost flipped over driving down Walker hill.
- 9) Chris found he can lean about 45deg without flipping. He tried to stop the flip by kicking his leg out.
- 10) Daniel/kelly's jeep was a jungle jim 'cause of their dogs.
- 11) Chris's radio problems caused Erik and Mark to miss where we were meeting for lunch.
- 12) They are trying to reopen Barret lake trail.

Other old Business

- 1) The cal4wheel lunch went pretty well. Kelley mostly took point and organized us.
